

GB Skate Artistic (GBSA)* Licence Procedure 2023

All GB Skate Artistic officials/board members/coaches/safeguarding leads and club volunteers (including dress makers) should have a valid GB Skate Artistic Licence. This must be renewed every 3 years.

Not all committee members need to have a licence. Junior coaches can apply from the age of 16yrs if required. If you are unsure, please contact the Safeguarding Team for clarification.

Applications can be made 2 months prior to licence expiry.

Section 1 – Coaches, Section 2 – Volunteers, Section 3 – Officials, Section 4 – Accepted documents & costs

SECTION 1 - Safeguarding Licence for coaches (Red Cards) –

STEP 1 – Ensure coaches details are on the database. ALL coaches must be a fully paid-up member of GBSA. If the details are not on the database, please complete a membership form (found on the website or via this link – Click here . The form will be submitted to the OFFICE via email – (Office@gbskateartistic.co.uk) once the office contacts you please provide the correct payment details by BACS.

STEP 2 - All Coaches must access and complete the EDUCare Safeguarding Training – Click here

Coaches will also need to complete a first aid course. Ideally this will be completed in person with a qualified company in your area, however this can also be completed online. We recommend the Protraining course which can be accessed here – Click here

Both the EduCare and First Aid Courses must be renewed every 3 years, alongside the DBS application.

STEP 3 – Once both the EDUCare and first aid certificates have been obtained, they should be emailed to the Safeguarding Team along with a DBS self-declaration form – found on the GBSA website or via this link – Click here

There is one for new applications and one for those people already on the update service*

At the same time payment for the DBS should be made to GBSA via BACS. Details of fees can be found below (Update service checks are free)
